

Mukhanyo Theological College is an accredited Christian educational institution in South Africa with a growing network of campuses and local learning sites in southern Africa. Mukhanyo gives glory to God by equipping church leaders and other Christians in Africa.

The college is now seeking to appoint an experienced, qualified, skilled, and motivated:

Senior Lecturer in Theology – Pretoria

Key roles and responsibilities:

- To serve at the Pretoria campus and also teach in KwaMhlanga and/or Johannesburg.
- To teach at degree, honours and masters levels in Old Testament, New Testament, Systematic Theology, and/or other areas, as determined by previous experience and present need.
- To provide godly holistic academic assistance and spiritual mentoring for pastoral students.
- To produce quality biblical distance learning material at secondary and tertiary levels.
- To effectively teach biblical content to adult learners and cultivate a learning environment.
- To work full-time in teaching, research, and material development at one of Mukhanyo's locations.
- To serve in other areas of the Mukhanyo ministry. Additional areas of responsibility will be determined by the experience, skills, and desire of the appointed candidate.
- Participate in various meetings, planning sessions, and other related Mukhanyo forums.

The desired candidate will:

- Demonstrate faith in Christ as defined by the Bible and as expressed consistently through a godly lifestyle that radiates the fruits of the Spirit with active participation in a Christian church.
- Promise to uphold the mission, vision, confessional statements, and values of the institution.
- Ideally hold a master's or doctor's degree in Christian theology, have many years of experience in pastoral ministry and ideally at least three years of experience in formal theological education.
- Be an ordained minister in a church or denomination that subscribes to the Three Forms of Unity, the Westminster Confession of Faith, and/or the London Confession of Faith 1689.
- Show competency in personal initiative, reliability, confidentiality, and communication skills.
- Demonstrate excellent administrative, research, interpersonal, conflict resolution, and communication skills with the ability to provide godly mentoring within a multicultural institution.
- Feel called by God to serve at Mukhanyo and to thus work for the coming of Christ's kingdom.

Mukhanyo welcomes candidates who are financially supported by their church or sending agency. We serve God's church in southern Africa by partnering with local churches and international Christian groups. Some of our senior staff members are subsidized by confessional churches or denominations. We strongly encourage and depend on local/global cooperation to advance the cause of Christ in southern Africa.

Interested candidates are requested to submit their CV and two contactable references to the Principal, Dr Brian DeVries (brian.devries@mtc.ac.za) by 31 August 2026. Further information concerning requirements and expectations, the mission of Mukhanyo's ministries, and other details will be provided upon request. Candidates may be requested to participate in further interviews or testing activities.

Please accept that your application was unsuccessful if there is no response within a month.